Performance

What it's about:

- The contrast between childhood and adulthood
- Retention as a whole—what we remember and how we remember

Variant Solutions

- Quilt/blanket instead of canvas as support.
- Old toys covered entirely in coffee grounds and glued to a panel or slate.

Ida Applebroog

When asked about her art, Applebroog responded,

“I can’t really tell the viewer how to interpret it. Because the meaning shifts with everyone who comes to the work—whether they’re male, female, old, young, middle aged, from different backgrounds—everything is very personal. You come to my work with your baggage, with your life experience.”
